INFORMATION DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Assistant Commissioner for Patents
Washington, D.C. 20231

Dear Sir:

Enclosed is form PTO-1449 listing twenty-three (23) references, twenty-two of which are enclosed. Applicants' description of the remaining listed reference follows below.

Single-action purchases of items sold by other users

More than one year prior to Applicants' October 30, 2000 priority date, it was possible for customers of the Amazon.com web site to purchase items offered for sale by other users with a single mouse click. Specifically, when a recognized visitor having the 1-Click feature turned on would visit a "zShops" detail page for an item offered for sale by another user, the page would be customized with an identifier of the visitor and a 1-Click button. Selection of the 1-Click button would cause the visitor's credit card to be charged, and would cause the seller's account to be credited.

Respectfully submitted,
